Made Tour of Inspection.

Professor Prince, Canadian commissioner of fisheries, has returned from visiting the fish reduction works of Cape Charles, Virginia, Boston, Portland, Eastport and other ports. The trip was undertaken for the purpose of gaining pointers in connection with similar works which the Canadian government will establish. One of these works will be at Canso, N. S., and two others at points to be selected. Dogfish, cod heads and fish waste generally, will be treated at the works.

Professor Prince says the cost of the reduction is about two or three dollars a ton, whereas the resultant product brings $30 a ton. The plant for the three Canadian reduction works has already been shipped.
